walkways and bridges of downtown Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Considered one of the premier public artists working in the United States, Tom Otterness has exhibited widely and completed commissions in the U.S. and abroad. Experience the magic of a true storyteller while encountering his stylized bronze figures that embody a range of human experience, from grand ambition to common foibles, often positioned to reference popular culture, social structures and myth. This extraordinary installation is sure to engage adults and children alike.

"Marlborough Gallery is proud to support this exciting and unprecedented public exhibition of Tom Otterness' work in Grand Rapids. We're hoping that Michigan residents and visitors alike enjoy these wonderful works of art," said President of Marlborough Gallery, Pierre Levai.
